

The night of freedom

AT A GLANCE

Bible

Exodus 12:1–14

Topic

Remembering makes us strong

Takeaway

Not forgetting God's help

5 minutes

Object: matzah and grape juice

Preparation: 5 min

indoors or outdoors

Make it personal: In two sentences, share something you have experienced yourself on the topic "Remembering makes us strong". Real stories stick best.

How the devotion works

1 min

Opening

Put the matzah and juice in the middle. Ask: Do you know which festival Jewish families celebrate in spring?

2 min

Story

God says: on the last night in Egypt the Israelites are to eat a lamb, bread without yeast and bitter herbs – with shoes on their feet, ready to leave. God passes over their houses, and they go out into freedom.

1 min

Thought

Passover is a festival of remembering. Every year the children ask: Why is this night different from all other nights? Remembering helps us keep trusting. Jesus celebrated Passover with his disciples shortly before Easter.

Question for all

What do you want to remember when you have experienced God's help?

The night of freedom

Prayer to read aloud

God, you set your people free from slavery. Help me never to forget the good things you have done. Amen.

For leaders

- Let a child read the prayer aloud – it builds confidence.
- Two or three answers to the question are enough. Nobody has to say anything.
- Leave the object in view until the end of the meeting.
