

JuLeiCa at a glance

AT A GLANCE

	What	The Jugendleiter/in-Card: Germany's nationwide ID card for trained volunteer youth leaders
	What for	Proof of qualification, recognition, often discounts and leave from work for camps
	Where	Apply online at juleica.de – your own association confirms the application from 16 years

basic training

first aid course

valid max. 3 years

Requirements

- Minimum age usually 16
- Basic training (Juleica course) – usually around 30 to 40 hours depending on the federal state (e.g. 34 hours in Bavaria)
- First aid course of 9 teaching units ("first aid for children" also counts), not older than three years
- Volunteer work in a youth group, e.g. as a group leader

Typical course content

- Duty of supervision, law and child protection
- Group education, games, leadership roles
- Planning meetings and camps, resolving conflicts

Five steps to the card

- 1 Ask your association about the next basic course
- 2 Attend the basic course and a first aid course
- 3 Apply online at juleica.de and upload a passport photo
- 4 Your association checks and confirms the application
- 5 The youth welfare office or responsible body issues the card – it arrives by post

Renewal

The card is valid for no more than three years. Renewal requires further training (e.g. 8 hours in Bavaria). Refresh your first aid regularly.

Note: Rules differ between federal states; your state youth council and association set the binding requirements. The card is free. Outside Germany, ask your national association about its own leader qualification.