

Christian growth as a leader

AT A GLANCE

Aim

Nurture your own faith and pass it on to children honestly and in an age-appropriate way

Ways

Prayer, Bible reading, fellowship, sharing in the leadership team

For the group

Prepare devotions, live with open questions, be a role model without pressure

Bible

devotion

mentoring

campfire

Five habits for leaders

- A fixed moment with God every day – short but regular
- Prepare a Bible passage before telling it to the group
- Pray for one another in the leadership team and share experiences
- Have a mentor to talk with about questions of faith
- Use songs, silence and nature deliberately as encounters with God

Leading good devotions

- One thought, one object, one question – less is more
- Share your own experiences instead of lecturing
- Take children's doubts and questions seriously
- Nobody has to pray or say anything

Questions for the leadership team

- What has moved me in my faith recently?
- Which question from a child made me think?
- How can we support each other when one of us has doubts?

Material: scouts-cloud.com has devotions for all age groups – from Bible stories to devotions with objects.

Training dates: Current courses on this topic are listed on scouts-cloud.com under "Events & dates > Training & courses".